(hereinafter referred to as the "Company"), establishes the basic principles and rules regarding the remuneration of the members of the Board of Directors and the Chief Managing Director (hereinafter referred to as the "Remuneration Policy"), covering all of their remuneration.

The Remuneration Policy was initially approved by the resolution of the Annual General Meeting of the Company's shareholders dated 10.07.2019, amended by the resolution of the Annual General Meeting of the Company's shareholders dated 15.07.2021, and revised in its current form by the ..... 2025 Resolution of the Annual General Meeting of the shareholders following a recommendation of the Remuneration and Nomination Committee to the Board of Directors and approval by the Board of Directors.

The "Remuneration Policy" is an integral part of the Company's corporate governance and is in line with the Company's overall operating policy, business strategy, objectives as well as the long-term interests of the Company and the long-term creation of value for its shareholders.

The "Remuneration Policy" promotes sound and effective risk management and is consistent with the objectives of the Company's business and risk management strategy, corporate culture, values, long-term interests and measures taken to avoid conflicts of interest. Directors of the Company do not make decisions on their own remuneration and do not attend the Remuneration and Nomination Committee when discussing such remuneration.

Accordingly, the operating standards and mechanisms adopted ensure that remuneration levels are based on the Company's value system, the level of responsibility, skills and experience of the Board members and are directly linked to the intended business results and desired behaviours. This Remuneration Policy is gender neutral, based on equal pay between female and male employees for similar work or work of equal value.

The "Remuneration Policy" has been adopted and applied in accordance with Articles 110 and 111 of Law 4548/2018, which incorporate Article 9a of Directive 2007/36/EC, as introduced by Directive 2017/828/EU and the provisions of Law 4706/2020.

The "Remuneration Policy" is valid for four (4) years from the date of its approval by the Company's Annual General Meeting of Shareholders.

The "Remuneration Policy" may be revised in the event of material changes in the circumstances under which it was drawn up. Any revision requires the approval of the Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders of the Company, as defined by paragraph 2 of article 110, of Law 4548/2018, as in force.

A temporary deviation from the present approved "Remuneration Policy" may be made, provided that the cumulative conditions defined by paragraph 6 of article 110 of Law 4548/2018, as in force, are met.

The principles and requirements of this "Remuneration Policy" of the Company are harmonized with the similar remuneration policies of all its subsidiaries, in Greece and abroad, which constitute the Athens Medical Group (hereinafter the "Group").

This "Remuneration Policy", succeeds, merges and replaces any other remuneration policy that existed prior to its adoption.

For this review of the Remuneration Policy, the Remuneration and Nomination Committee and the Board have taken into account the key financial indicators of the Company, as well as the remuneration structure and practices followed within the Company, in order to ensure that there is consistency within the Company and relevance between the remuneration received by the Board members in line with their responsibility to the performance of the Company relative to other employees.
