In the case of returning to the calendar year, the accounting law does not provide for the submission of any notice in this regard.

According to the provisions of art. VI paragraph (7) of the said order, in case the entity modifies the date chosen for the preparation of annual financial statements in this way that the reporting financial year returns to the calendar year, the balance sheets reported starting with the following financial year 1) ended refers to January 1, December 31, respectively, and the revenue and expenditure accounts correspond to the current financial year 2), respectively to the financial year preceding the reporting.

For example, if a company that had the financial year other than the calendar year chooses to return to the calendar year starting January 1, 2022, it prepares accounting reports as follows:

- for December 31, 2021 - annual accounting reports;

- for December 31, 2022 annual financial statements.
- D. Accounting of the amounts received from the shareholders / associates is made in the account 455 3) "Amounts owed to the shareholders / associates".

If the loans are received from affiliated entities, their value is recorded in the account 451 "Settlements between the affiliated entities".

- 1) It refers to the first financial year for which the annual financial statements are drawn up at the level of a calendar year.
- 2) This is the first financial year that becomes a calendar year.

Thus, according to the example presented above, the balance sheets included in the annual financial statements concluded on December 31, 2022 refer to the January 1, 2022 and December 31, 2022, respectively, and the revenue and expenditure accounts correspond to the current financial year (2022), respectively to the financial year financial prior to the reporting (2021).

3) See, in this regard, the provisions of point 349 of the accounting regulations, according to which the amounts deposited or temporarily left by the shareholders / associates at the disposition of the entity, as well as the related interests, calculated according to the law, are recorded in accounting in separate accounts (account 4551 "Shareholders / associates - current accounts", respectively account 4558" Shareholders / associates - interest on current accounts").
